Lord Byron

Paris

A sense of ease and tranquility reigns in the Lord Byron of Paris. The soul of this new address of refined hospitality is given by an intimate and extremely inviting dimension for the guest, starting from the lobby that leads to the bright veranda and the outdoor terrace. A refuge with a modern and warm atmosphere, as underlined by the owner, Catherine Dupasquier.

The location of the Lord Byron is undoubtedly a plus, seeing that the Hôtel is located just a few steps from the Champs Elysée and the Arc de Triomphe.

Attention to refinement, which gives the Lord Byron an authentic and well-defined identity, is the result of a careful and meditated study of interiors. The architectural lines chosen for the intense recovery action of the two historic buildings are, in fact, evident in their refined classical inspiration.

The relationship with the guest is assured, thanks to carefully refined service. The interaction between colors, quality materials, and furnishing solutions that combine comfort and functionality make the rooms and suites outstanding. Attention to detail is combined with a sober décor and sophisticated technological modernity.

Guests staying at the Lord Byron, therefore, enjoy a pleasant sweetness abundantly dispensed by this elegant Parisian residence.

The Maison Blanche restaurant is a typical restaurant in Paris that offers a superb view of the city, the Seine and the Eiffel Tower.

The bright environment, under the management of chef Fabrice Giraud, is an elegant frame for the menu, inspired by the sun and Mediterranean accents.

In fact, the dishes proposed skillfully represent the path of an elegant and modern kitchen that uses, with care, selected raw materials paying great attention to the seasonal offer.
